Carpenters should be broke Lafiet—many of them are counterfeiters.

Albany has the small-pox—but then it has got rid of the Legislature.

Two bushels of rats were found in the vat of a brewery recently sized by revenue officers in Philadelphia.

"How many feet long was the snake?" asked a person of a traveler, who had just related a story of his encounter with a boa killed by him. "One hundred and ninety-two inches," was the reply; "snakes have no feet."

The following is Aunt Dolly's description of her milkman: "He is the honestest man in the world," she exclaimed. "He skims his milk on the top, then turns it over and skims the bottom."

A dashing young widow in Detroit, prepared a pleasant surprise for her visitor a few evenings since. Expecting a call from him, she hid herself in a convenient corner, and as he touched the knob of the door bell sprang out in the darkness of the evening, and nearly smothered him with kisses. His cool reception of her caresses startled her with a recognition of the fact that instead of her lover she had been lavishing her sweetness upon the conductor of a street car, who had come with a note explaining an unforseen absence. The widow thereupon, with great propriety, fainted on the spot.

FOR THE SEASON—Pew No. 1,

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, May 20, 1868

FOR PRESIDENT,
ULYSSES S. GRANT.

STRANGERS AND SUMMER VISITORS spending the season in Newport will find it to their advantage to consult the advertising columns of the Daily News before selecting their places of trade. They will find, carefully arranged under appropriate heads, the names and places of business of our leading merchants and artisans of all classes, and may thus be enabled to make, by comparison, more satisfactory arrangements than a limited acquaintance in Newport would otherwise allow.

The Chicago Convention.

Last evening's special dispatches show that the Republicans are having lively times at Chicago. The Soldiers and Sailors who fought for the country during the war have met and organized. They are assembled, as is well understood, in the interest of Gen. Grant their old leader under whose flag they still propose to fight. Nearly if not all the States in the Union are fully represented, and the greatest enthusiasm is represented as prevailing. "Perley" says that some are maimed and others have never recovered from the cruel treatment which they received in rebel prisons, but all are inspirited by their heart love for the old flag and for the great General who led them to victory. Of course intriguing politicians are endeavoring to enlist them in the support of the numerous candidates for the Vice Presidency, but the "boys in blue" don't see it They go in for the Union, Grant, and the other nominations that will win.

On entering the hall, 'Old Abe," the Wisconsin War Eagle, was brought on the platform, where he gazed about defiantly as if he felt inspired by the sight of so many old comrades.

As the New England delegations entered they struck up "Rally Round the Flag Boys," which was sung with a will. Not over half the delegates could find room in the hall.

When General Logan entered he was greeted with volleys of cheers by delegations, accompanied by many of the familiar battle cries. Then there were groans for Trumbull and Grimes, and then the boys struck up "Old Grimes is dead," which was sung with emphasis. More cheers followed—cheers for Sickles, cheers for Butler, cheers for everybody.

At last Gen. Cochran of New York endeavored to procure silence, and his persuasive voice quieted the tumult. At noon Major W. S. Morse called the Convention to order, and Rev. Dr. Fellows of Wisconsin made a fervent prayer.

Gen. Lee of Connecticut nominated Gen. Fairchild, Governor of Wisconsin, as temporary Chairman, and he was chosen. Coming forward—his empty sleeve a testimonial of his bravery—he made a patriotic and stirring address. Pointing to the bust of Lincoln he said that the representatives of a million of men had come here to swear by the memory of that martyr, by the old flag, by the widows of those who fell, that they would again be mustered in "for three years or the war," to secure equal political rights to all.

The regular Republican National Convention had not yet met, but the delegates were present eagerly canvassing for a candidate for the Vice Presidency to be put on the ticket with Gen. Grant. Colfax, Hamlin, Wilson and Wade are the principal candidates, though many others have been named for the position. Governor Buckingham has withdrawn his name altogether, and the issue seems to be narrowing down to a choice between Colfax and Wilson either of whom are good enough. The indications now are that the party will not only remain intact but be able to present a united front and proceed to a sure and easy victory.

The Non Impeaching Senators.

The Tribune discusses impeachment matters with great earnestness, and speaks as follows of those senators who voted for acquittal:—

This vote exhibits at least a remarkable nice adjustment of means to ends. Nineteen were needed to acquit in a vote of fifty four; an incidence as striking as that related by Sam Weller of his father's upsetting a load of voters on their way to election.

Of course, nobody imagines that such men as Messrs. Fessenden, Grimes, Trumbull, and Van Winkle, voted otherwise than they believed just. Warped by personal antipathy or prejudice their judgments may have been—we think they were—but they are above the suspicion of yielding to any more sordid temptation. Mr. Van Winkle did not determine on which side to cast his vote until two days before the verdict.

Of Mr. Fowler, we have already stated that he was an early and apparently earnest advocate of Impeachment that he found fault with the failure of the House to impeach in December—that, on the 10th of January last, at a meeting of the Republican Committee at Senator Morgan's he saw fit, without being in any manner incited to do so, to declare that there was little use in Republican effort so long as Andrew Johnson was allowed to remain in the White House, and that the blood of loyal men in the South, daily slain by implacable Rebels, would rest on the souls of those Members of Congress who should persist in obstructing the impeachment and removal of said Johnson. There may be some way of reconciling this speech with honesty in the vote given by Mr. Fowler on Saturday, but it has not occurred nor been suggested to us. Mr. Fowler too kept his purpose to vote as he did from the knowledge of Republicans so long as he could.

Of Mr. Henderson, we forbear to speak for the present.

Mr. Ross succeeded in deceiving even his colleague to the last. He attended a meeting of the earnest supporters of Impeachment at that colleague's house the evening before the verdict, and was apparently one of them. He has repeatedly declared that he should vote Guilty on the XIth and several other articles. Yet Gen. Thomas Ewing, Jr., we learn, knew, days ago, that he would vote Not Guilty if it should be necessary. No doubt, Mr. Ross has an explanation of his course ready; and we are sure his most partial friend will agree with us that it is badly needed.

The English Government were twice defeated on a division on amendments to the Scotch Reform bill. Disraeli at length begins to feel uncomfortable, and has informed the House that "the minister must now consider their position."

Bunyan Concerning Communion

John Bunyan the author of The Pilgrims Progress, and one of the most illustrious Baptists in the whole denomination, was an able champion of open-communion. Both in theory and in practice he held that all visible saints should commune with each other at the Lord's table. He wrote three able and learned essays in defence of these views, all of which are found in the first volume of his works, as published by Virtue and Youston, of London; but which have been omitted from the American editions of his works as published by the close communion Baptists. Even the edition in eleven volumes, published by the American Baptist Publication Society, and which is popularly supposed to be a complete collection of his works, has mutilated Bunyan's writings by omitting all his pleas for unrestricted communion.

Of these essays published by Bunyan in advocacy of the practice of free communion, the most complete, embracing, twenty eight pages in Virtues edition, is that entitled, "difference in judgement about water baptism no bar to communion." Another essay is entitled, "A confession of my Faith. Showing by diverse arguments that though I dare not communicate with the open profane, yet I can with those visible saints that differ about water baptism." In these essays, as in every thing which Bunyan has written, there is great vigor of language, and a thorough sway of Scriptural citations. He rebukes the exclusiveness of close communion. He turns the tables upon those who practice it by affirming that their practice is not only unlovly and sectarian, but that it is directly contrary to the teaching of the New Testament. Having with a meek and gentle spirit, and yet with great courage also, resisted ecclesiastical despotism, and the blighting effects of religious bigotry, he taught his churches, and made it much the theme of discourse wherever he preached, that all the Lord's people should have charity, and show forth their unity of spirit in partaking together at the Lord's table

A few sentences from the essays referred to may afford a sample of his style in treating this subject. The following is worthy the brave man who suffered in Bedford jail for conscience sake:—

"For God's people to divide into parties, or to shut each other from church communion, though from greater points, and upon higher pretences, than this of water baptism hath heretofore been counted and held, and the actors herein babyish christians. Let the cry be never so loud "Order," "The rule," or the like, carnality is but the bottom; and they are but babes that do it; their zeal is but a puff. In the midst of your zeal for the Lord, remember that the visible saint is his, and is privileged in all those spiritual things that you have in the word, and live in the practice of; and that he is to partake thereof; according to his light therein. Quarrel not with him about things that are circumstantial, but receive him in the Lord, as becometh saints; if he will not have communion with you, the neglect is his, not yours."

In another place he says, "I own water-baptism to be God's ordinance, but I make no idol of it. I am for union and communion among the godly. Love is more discovered when we receive for the sake of Christ and grace; than when we refuse for want of water. Baptism with water is neither a bar nor bolt to communion of saints nor a door nor inlet to communion of saints."

End of a Swindle.

We have already announced the arrest of A. A. Kelley, and his conveyance to Buffalo. Kelley's Weekly, remarks the Brooklyn Union, was the organ of a gift enterprise. It published circulars of lotteries with tempting displays of prizes, of value running as high as $150 or more, including greenbacks and watches and jewelry, and other strong baits to the unwary. But the drawers of prizes received no watches, no jewelry, nothing solid. The prize always distributed, which was sent to all who, having drawn, made an advance payment of five per cent. on the value, was shares of Sandy River Valley Petroleum stock. This was a company of which no one had ever heard, which will doubtless never be heard of again. Few, if any, know where the Sandy River Valley is, and none know if there is any petroleum there. This was a genuine swindle. The number who have been entrapped by it cannot be estimated.—It must be great, for the Weekly was an attractive looking publication, and the number of fools to be deluded by the glitter of false jewels and imagined wealth does not diminish, but seems to increase.

Now comes an end of Kelley, the extinguishment of his handsome weekly, and the dissipation of the Sandy River Valley Petroleum into the shadowy realms of mist.—Kelley has been arrested and taken to Buffalo on a charge of swindling. His plans are exposed, and those who have been foled by him will know the extent of their folly. Yet the next swindler that comes up will find as many fools to mislead as though Kelley had never given them to know how it could be done.

THE DEMOCRACY.—Ex-President Pierce has written a letter to say that he will sustain Mr. Pendleton, Mr. Seymour, Mr. Hendricks, Mr. Doolittle, Gen. Hancock, or any other man whom the Tammany Convention may nominate for the Presidency He desires a united Democracy, and a vigorous effort to "arrest the surge of Constitution-defying Radicalism." The Democratic leaders throughout the country generally feel much less harmonious than Mr. Pierce.

IMPEACHMENT IN EUROPE.—The cable informs us that the acquittal of the President has produced a profound sensation in Great Britain, and we are furnished with the views of the leading London Journals on the subject. The Times thinks the vote of the Senate "shows the case to have been judged on its merits alone." The Telegraph considers the acquittal a "most fitting close to the trial;" and the Standard thinks the "country has been saved the shame of deposing its Chief Magistrate for refusing to obey an illegal act of Congress." We suppose the journals of all the countries of Europe gave their opinions on the acquittal yesterday morning.

About Home.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.—After the meeting of the Court yesterday afternoon, the case of Mary Worden, administratrix, vs. John M. Anthony, was opened to the petit jury, and occupied the time of the Court until five o'clock. This was a suit to recover an account of $105, alleged to have been due the husband of the plaintiff at the time of his death—the defendant filed a bill in offset to which he sought to establish by book account, and the case was argued by Francis B. Peckham, Jr., Esq., for the plaintiff, and by Wm. P. Sheffield, Esq., for the defendant. The Jury were out from five o'clock until nine in the evening, when they came into Court and stated that they stood eleven to one, but could not probably agree. After some further instructions from the Court they retired again and soon came into Court with a verdict for plaintiff for one hundred and thirty-four dollars, being the amount claimed with interest.

James Brealin under indictment for stabbing Robert Walsh, was arraigned, and, in the absence of Walsh who refused to appear against him, was fined thirty dollars and costs of prosecution and stand committed to the Providence County Jail until they were paid.

This morning the Grand Jury came in with indictments against Charles Harris for illegal voting pleaded guilty, and sentenced to pay $100 fine, and all costs of prosecution and to be imprisoned in the Providence County Jail until sentence be performed in all its parts.

Against George F. Lake for breaking and entering a shop, and stealing. He was arraigned pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the State's Prison for the term of four years.

Against Daty J. B. Holland a young man 18 years old, for entering a house in daytime and larceny, he was arraigned, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to the Providence Reform School for and during his minority.

Against Milton A. Daly and Patrick Murphy for burglary. They were arraigned, pleaded guilty and were sentenced to the States Prison, for a term of five years.

BISHOP CLARK'S LECTURE.—The Rt. Reverend Bishop Clark gave his exceedingly interesting and eloquent lecture at the Academy of Music last evening and our people maintained their well established reputation as non-lecture goers. We have had within the past few years some of the best lecturers in the country announced for Newport, but never, on a single occasion have we seen what is considered a good audience. This is the first attempt for the present season, made under circumstances that should have called out the people, if any could, but there was only about the usual number present. Those who heard the Bishop, however, enjoyed a rich treat and were well repaid for their attendance.

ACCIDENT.—We hear that Mr. John Allan was thrown from a wagon this morning, and striking the pavement was considerably injured.

Literary Notices.

"Exploration of the Nile Tributaries of Abyssinia." By Sir. S. W. Baker. Hartford: O. D. Case & Co. p. 603. Illustrated.

We have read this book with great interest. Travels in Africa are always interesting, and especially when the traveller knows how to tell his story in such good English as that of S. W. Baker. He has given the world a previous volume announcing discovery of the sources of the Nile, which has placed him in the front rank of explorers and given him a world-wide reputation. The present volume is devoted to an account of his visit to the tributaries of that river, in the examination of which he spent about twelve months, accompanied by his wife who shared with him all the perils of an African life.

The work is adapted in all respects to popular reading. It gives the most graphic description of life in the great Nubian desert, and among the mountains of Abyssinia, and sketches innumerable encounters with elephants, hippopotami, lions, giraffes, and other game of the country both large and small.

The discovery of the sources of the great Nile solved the mystery of ages, but that mystery is not completely unravelled without this book. The Atbara, Blue Nile &c., are essential parts of "the river," and these are here set before us. In reading, one feels transported to that distant land, travels, hunts, and suffers in common with the author. We shall quote some of the sketches in future numbers of our paper.

The book is splendidly got up, in large type, fine paper, and good binding and will have an extensive sale.

PUTNAMS MONTHLY is on hand in good season, and as usual is a repository of good things. This is one of the Magazines that we take time to read, and which always repays us for the trouble. The June number contains a continuation of Too True—A story of To-Day; Out of the Way Books and Authors, by C. A. Duyckinck; Fidelia, a poem by Bayard Taylor; A Morning among Autographs, by Wm. Young; June Songs by Helen Kimball; Something about Women by C. H. Dall; The Low Down People, by Col J. W. DeForest; A Fair Face by Caroline Cheesebro; Diary of Fenimore Cooper, by S. F. Cooper; and other excellent articles from various pens. The portrait of Hon. Schuyler Colfax fails to do full justice to the speaker of the House of Representatives, but the sketch of his life and character, though brief, is appreciative.

So far as we can judge the present number is equal to any that have gone before it, and that is enough Long life, we say to Putnam.

"Alcohol its Nature and Effects"—Two Lectures, by Charles A. Storey, M. D.

This is a thoroughly scientific work, yet written in a fresh, vigorous and popular style, in language that the masses can understand. It is not often that so much solid information is imparted in so entertaining a manner. This book furnishes food for thought and should be read by every man given to the use of alcoholic drinks. Temperance men can scarcely do better than to aid in its general circulation. Published by the National Temperance Society, 172 William St. N. Y.

"Our Parish:" A Temperance Tale by Emily C. Pearson. This is an interesting story from the same publishers. The fact that this book has an excellent moral and is designed to teach great truths, does not in the least detract from its interest as a charming story.

When important, and saving truths can be presented in this way, parents have a fine opportunity to teach their children, and reformers an easy way to instruct their fellows.

The book is admirably adopted to Sabbath School Libraries and general reading.

Methodist Episcopal General Conference.

CHICAGO, May 11, 1868.

An extra element of interest culminating in and around the General Conference transpired to-day in the first public meeting of the

LAYMEN'S CONVENTION.

Clarke Street Church was almost packed at the hour of 3 o'clock by laymen and ministers from all parts of the country. We noticed Hon. Isaac Rich, and Hiram Merrill, esq., of Boston, in the audience, as representing the metropolitan New England lay element. The great preponderance, however, of the representatives were from New York and Philadelphia. The reportorial force had quite a perceptible augmentation, also, indicating the strong hold which the lay-representative idea has obtained upon the mind of the great mass of Methodists in the populous centres of the country at least.

Gen. Clinton C. Fisk, of St. Louis, made a neat and good humored address on taking the chair as president of the convention, facetiously expressing the hope that should any thing befall him, he would be succeeded by some one of the many good, unimpeachable vice-presidents, by whom he found himself supported. (Great laughter.) "Appointed to steer the ship," he continued, "it will be expected of me to do much towards filling the sails"—nevertheless he went on to make a very effective speech, calling forth much applause from the crowded auditory—dwelling forcibly on the impolitic idea of seceding from the church, which he compared to going outside of an organization to obtain their rights in it.

Letters were read from C. D. Hubbard, esq., Wm. Lawrence, Esq., Wm. A. Pile, esq., and James Harlan, esq., of Washington, all expressed cordial sympathy with the object of the convention, and regret at not being allowed to be present in the convention.

A series of seven resolutions were read to the convention, and adopted without remark, after which the chairman introduced Rev. Dr. Tiffany, as a layman from New Jersey (profuse laughter), who announced himself as a High Church Methodist! He proceeded to deliver an address of considerable length, arguing the duty and the policy of the M. E. Church to provide for the speedy admission to the councils of the church the lay element.

Bishop Simpson, on being loudly called for, briefly spoke, expressing his profound conviction of the need of more intimate cooperation of the clergy and laity for the efficiency of the church.

The convention adjourned to meet at 7½ o'clock in the evening, at the close of the bishop's remarks.

THE EVENING SESSION

was thinly attended, and was addressed by Rev. J. M. Reily of Kentucky, who, in arguing for lay delegation, told the convention that as sure as the lay element was admitted to the annual and general conferences, the laymen might expect to be bled freely in a financial point of view. We once contented ourselves," said he, "with using the thumb lance, then we grew bolder and took the German blade for it, but now we shall take the old phlebotomy lance, that they bleed horses with, striking it in with a mallet!" (Great laughter.)

Rev. Mr. Hatfield of this city, being called on, gave one of his scathing harangues, much to the regret of many, in whose opinion the success of the project of incorporating the laity in the legislative councils of the church was not a little damaged by him.

FRIDAY, May 15, 1868.

The business of the morning was entirely superseded by the dense crowd thronging the conference room to hear the sermon by Rev. Mr. Punshon, every available spot of the room being crowded.

The Gazette says:—Twenty years ago the population of this city was about 7,600. The number of persons employed in mechanical and manufacturing pursuits was about 1,599, and the capital invested $650,000.—At the present time the population of the whole city is in the neighborhood of 17,500. The number employed in manufacturing establishments is about 4000, and the capital invested $3,000,000. Not only the number, but the kinds of manufacture have been largely added to in that time, and there are now over thirty factories of considerable size for the manufacture of different kinds of goods. It is safe to state that the wealth and population of Taunton within a radius of two miles from the centre have increased four-fold. The city within that radius has shown an annual increase notwithstanding the drain of the four years war upon labor and capital. The increase has been very marked since the close of the war, and at present the hand of enterprise is stretched forth in every direction. Judging of the future by the past, it is safe to prophesy a still larger growth in the twenty years to come.

COMEDY OF ERRORS.—An Attleboro correspondent of the Pawtucket Gazette states that the candidate for town treasurer of Attleboro made an error in saying that he did not desire the office, and the people made an error by taking him at his word and electing somebody else. Then the late treasurer committed the error of refusing to deliver the property of the town to his successor. The collector of taxes has made an error of $1000 in his accounts for the past year, and the treasurer has made another, in reporting $268.23 in the treasury, investigation showing that there should be over four hundred dollars.

Little Compton.

Hon. T. M. Church, member elect of the General Assembly is reported sick with the small pox. The fact creates considerable excitement in the town as that disease is not a frequent visitor in that locality.

Not a single divorce has been granted in South Carolina since its settlement.

There is a judicial district in Iowa comprising ten counties, in which there is not a single lawyer.

Hon. Anson Burlingame, with the Embassy Extraordinary from the Emperor of China, is expected to arrive at New York the present week by steamship from California.

George Washington Francis, a colored boy who formerly lived at Bridgeport, Conn., is now "His Imperial Highness" in Hayti. He is a cousin of President Geffrard.

Bennett, the removed treasurer of the New York and New Haven railroad, is said to be a defaulter to the amount of $88,205, and proceedings have been instituted against him.

St. Thomas is dejected, Uncle Samuel, having wooed and won her, strangely neglects to have the marriage ceremony performed, because some of his grown-up boys object. The bad fit of the "shakes" which she had last fall, and her general unhealthy state, make it doubtful whether the marriage will ever take place.

Not long ago a forger in prison at Madison, Wisconsin, was pardoned on condition that he would testify in a case against an accomplice. He did so, but the proof was not conclusive, and the pardoned man was arrested on another charge, convicted, and sent back to his old quarters.

Some people in Hartford, Conn., moved thereto by floating newspaper paragraphs, recently collected several hundred cats wherewith to feed the animals in a menagerie then on a visit to that city. The menagerie men refused to purchase, and the cats had to be turned loose upon the neighborhood.

A letter from Omaha, N. T., says that city is full of men looking for employment, and thousands are almost starving, who would willingly return if they had the means. There are so many applicants for work that the Pacific Railroad Company have reduced the wages of mechanics, &c., to $2 per day, and laborers $1.25, and are still overcrowded with applications. Hundreds sleep in the freight sheds nightly, not having the means to pay for shelter.

VAN AMRINGE & CO'S. GREAT GOLDEN MENAGERIE.—The Providence Herald of the 16th inst., speaking of this popular Menagerie, says:

Neither rain storms, nor hurricanes seem to stay the triumphant march of this model exhibition through the country. During the heavy wind and rain of last Wednesday afternoon and evening, the Menagerie was exhibiting in Rockville, Conn., and, despite the very unpropitious weather, and the colossal proportions of their canvass, they were obliged to turn people from their doors, being unable to accommodate them. The rain, as described by a witness, seemed to come in a perfect deluge, yet not a drop penetrated the water-proof pavilion. The same storm completely demolished the splendid stand of hills erected at the corner of Washington and Cove streets, but the management will have the boards recovered to-day, should the weather prove anyways propitious, with an entirely new assortment.

Large and attractive sale by auction of new and elegant furniture of every description will take place, at Aquidneck Hall commencing Monday May 25, at 2 p. m. and to be continued every afternoon for one week. For further particulars see advertisement in a few days.

GENTLEMEN will notice with pleasure the announcement of reduction in price for fine clothing, made in our columns by the well known House of CHAS. A. SMITH & CO., School street, Boston, which firm has won deserved credit in years past for fair dealing, excellent material, and superior workmanship.—They are now opening a full line of foreign goods, of their own importation, which are well worthy examination.

A BALM FOR EVERY WOUND.—Grace's Celebrated Salve is now so generally used for the cure of fresh wounds, cuts, burns, ulcers, felons, sprains, and all diseases of the skin, that praise of it seems to be needless. Those who have used it once always keep a pot on hand, and nothing will induce them to be without a supply.

THE MANAGER OF THE CHILDRENS HOME acknowledge gratefully the following donations received during the months of March and April:—1 pig, 3 yards calico, 1 dozen eggs, 1 basket potatoes, 1 sofa 1 bureau, 1 bureau and desk, 6 yards calico, an Easter offering for sacks for the children. From the Knitting Society, 8 pairs mittens, 6 pairs stockings, 3 pairs stockings; from a friend, 12 quarts milk; 1 dozen oranges, 1 dozen lemons, soap, jelly, beef tea, and various other delicacies for the children during the prevalence of the measles, 1 sofa 1 bureau, 1 desk, 1 basket, 1 can of milk, 2 dozen shoe strings, 1 bag of flour, 1 pair knitted horse reins, 10 collars, a lot of books, 3 cans of milk, 2 pairs boys stockings, 1 suit boys clothes, 2 jackets, 1 vest and 1 apron, 1 dozen loaves of bread, 1 can of milk, 9 loaves of bread and crackers from Mr. Johnson, 11 loaves of bread from Mr. Allen, and 7 loaves fresh brown bread from Mr. Davis.

HOSTETTER'S WHISKEY.—For Asthma, colds, and for all troubles of a kindred nature, use Golden Sheaf Bourbon Whiskey. It is sold in large square bottles, with the name of C. A. RICHARDS on every bottle. 99 all druggists and grocers everywhere. C. A. RICHARDS & CO., 99 Washington street, Boston, largest Retail Wine and Spirit House in America.

INTELLECT, IMPROVEMENT, and POLICY, has defeated a political party before now, but there is no individual who can afford to reject this plank from the platform of life's purse and constitution. SONOMA WINE BITTERS, for sale everywhere, have a most salutary effect on the bowels and kidneys.

AS THE CATALOGUE, it is not necessary to present reasons to prove the usefulness and profitableness of general insurance. Yet the same arguments that tend to show that it is wise to insure your life or your residence weigh even more strongly in favor of insuring stock, because losses and cattle are far more perishable in their nature than losses of human lives. In the loss of insured live stock, rich and poor alike receive an absolute equivalent for the property. The ÆTNA is second to none in its liberal table of rates.

NO LOSS CAN BE MORE FATAL TO BEAUTY, ESPECIALLY in the female sex, than the loss of the lustrous glossy, luxuriant hair is one of the most powerful of all personal charms. When baldness arrests a deficiency of hair exists, we naturally look for a dry and wrinkled skin, a faded complexion; when not actually exists, we see them in imagination. Why then, not cultivate your hair? Encourage it and strengthen it; or, if your hair is gray or white, the natural color can be restored by a few applications of Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER or DRESSING, (in one bottle.) Price One Dollar. Every Druggist sells it. apr25—1m

MRS. ALLEN'S HAIR RESTORER, sold by CASWELL, HAZARD & CO.

Avoid Poison.

Invalid reader, do you know what nine tenths of the bitter compounds you are solicited by the proprietors to accept as universal panaceas are composed of? Give heed for a moment. They are manufactured from impure alcohol, containing a considerable portion of fusil oil—a poison almost as deadly as prussic acid. The basis of the regular Pharmacopœia of the Materia Medica is the same. No amount of "herbal extract" can overcome the bad tendency of this pernicious element. The essence of sound Rye, thoroughly rectified, is the only stimulant which can be safely used as a component of a tonic, alterative and anti-bilious medicine, and HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is the only medicinal preparation in the world in which this article is used as an ingredient. Hence the extraordinary effects of this great specific. It gives strength without producing excitement. No other tonic does this. All the so called Bitters flash the face and affect the brain.—HOSTETTER'S BITTERS diffuses an agreeable calm through the nervous system, promotes digestion and produces sleep. No other tonic so quickly revives the exhausted physical energies, restores the appetite and removes the gloom and depression which always accompanies weakness of the bodily powers. It purges from the system the morbid humor which retard its natural functions, and which bring paleness to the cheek and suffering to the brow. It banishes these clogs upon pleasure, restores the system to high health, and necessarily proves a valuable ally to the digestive organs. A trial is all that is needed to establish it in the confidence of the people.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Asthma Influenza, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Predisposition to Consumption, &c., &c.

This great remedy is too well known and is performing too much good to make it necessary to go into an elaborate discussion of its merits. Suffice to say that it still maintains its supremacy in curing diseases of the most obstinate character, and that all who suffer from the above complaints, after having tested this remedy, seldom have occasion to resort to other appliances to insure a perfect restoration to health.

From SAMUEL A. WALKER, Esq., of Boston,
The well-known Auctioneer.

To Seth W. Fowle:

My Dear Sir—Having experienced results of a salutary character from the use of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, in cases of severe colds, during the past two years, I am induced to express the full faith I have in its renovating power.

I was first induced to try this medicine as an experiment, about two years ago, in connection with the strong recommendation of a friend, who was wellnigh gone with Consumption, and whose relief from the use of it satisfied me of its great value in cases of colds and deafness, and most clearly demonstrating, to my mind, its great value as a restorative, that only needs a fair trial to insure a grateful demonstration from the public.

Your obedient servant,
SAMUEL A. WALKER.

HEALTHY! HAPPY! AND HUNGRY!

Well, reader! don't you think that a pretty comfortable sort of a feeling? Now you just keep on reading and you will find out what it is that will bring these three blessings straight into your life, and when you once get them, don't blame our remedy if you don't keep them there.

HEALTH!

Good health! What is life worth without it? How it sweetens every joy and doubles every pleasure. THE HEALTHY ARE THE HAPPY. A good digestion is what you must have before you can enjoy anything.

What is the Use

Of standing before some beautiful object of art, and as the mind fills with admiration with its pleading beauties, you feel some confounded pain in your head, or somewhere else, which sends you away heartsick and disgusted with yourself and everybody else.

How Can You be Happy

under such circumstances?

THEN, AGAIN,

What sense is there in sitting down day after day to a good dinner that your wife has worked hard all the forenoon to get up for you, and finding that while the spirit is willing, the flesh is so miserably weak and lagged out, that you had rather go to sleep than try to eat anything?

THE FACT IS,

You are not hungry, and you feel as though you would exchange most anything you have to be able to sit down and eat.

Good Square Meal,

Just as you did when you was a HEALTHY, HAPPY, and HUNGRY BOY.

Now your ideas of

HOW TO GET BETTER,

Are rather mixed up. You fancy you have got to go to the Doctor and get a lot of medicine, and stay in the house long enough to let hair grow on your head and have a general run of a two-story sickness. You need not do anything of the kind to be

Healthy, Happy and Hungry,

Because you can just go to the

Apothecary or Grocery Store

at the corner, and get a bottle of

C. A. RICHARDS & CO.'S

SONOMA WINE BITTERS,

And you have then done just the right thing, and you will feel it out yourself. They will drive away all those languid, heavy, dull feelings, and make a new man of you. Then don't save it all for yourself, but

Pass it Around,

Give it to your wife, deal it out to the children, send it in to the schoolboys, and take it down town to your office. It won't hurt you. It will not intoxicate, and muddle your head. There is but very little spirit in it, no more than there is in any pure native wine.

The plants and roots with which it is bittered have a Wonderful Power to make you HUNGRY, and the combination forms a medical effect that works like

A Charm in the Spring-Time.

Accompanying each bottle is a pamphlet, that gives the entire explanation of the great curative properties of all the articles that make the

Delightful Taste and Smell

Of the Sonoma Wine Bitters.

Peerless Cooking Stove.

HEAR what the Boston Journal says of this superior article:

Among the peculiar merits claimed for this stove is the complete ventilation and even temperature of the oven, making it a roasting rather than a baking oven, which is secured by a peculiarly constructed air-chamber, which heats the air as it passes down behind the fire pot as I into the oven, causing the meat to bake or roast perfectly and evenly, a great desideratum with a careful housewife; the perfect control which can be kept over the fire, and its cleanliness. This stove works equally well with coal or wood. These stoves are of different sizes, and are made plain or with an extension top, the latter being made with a large reservoir for hot water on the top and a warming closet underneath. Those of our readers who would like to keep up with the times would do well to call and examine the "Peerless stove." Sole agent in Newport,

TELEGRAMS.

Last Evening's Specials.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 19.

The House is in session but there is not a quorum present. The business is confined to private claims. There are not a hundred persons in the galleries and the Senate not being in session the Capitol is almost deserted. Some of the Committees are in session, but little of interest is transpiring.

The sick Senators are in better health today, although the condition of Grimes and Howard is still regarded with anxiety.—Neither has left his room since the impeachment vote. Conkling and Morton are in usual health again.

Charles Woodley, of the Cincinnati whiskey ring, is to be examined by the managers to-day.

Another dispatch says it is stated that startling developments were made at the examination of witnesses yesterday before the Managers relative to bribery and corruption of Senators. Many witnesses from the whiskey ring have been summoned. The Managers have a copy of Van Winkle's opinion as in favor of conviction on the eleventh article, and it is not improbable that the Managers will exercise their right to alter or amend some of the remaining articles of impeachment before the 26th. A new article may be substituted for some of the remaining ten not yet voted upon. An officer of the First National Bank was examined yesterday, and the books of that concern are being examined by Gen. Butler.

A CORRUPTION FUND.

One of the witnesses examined this afternoon by the managers, declined to account for a large sum of money in his possession and disbursed at the close of last week.—He has had time allowed him to consider the question, and if he refuses, he will be imprisoned for contempt of the House.

WASHINGTON, May 19.

There was scarcely a quorum in the House to-day.

There is not a quorum of Senators in the city, and it is probable that no legislative business will be transacted this week. A number of members will leave for their homes to-day.

The impeachment managers were engaged in examining witnesses to-day.

John Nagle of Prince Williams county, has brought a suit for damages for $20,000 against Secretary Stanton for injuries done to his house and farm by some cavalry sent there by order of Stanton in the summer of 1865.

The Methodist General Conference.

CHICAGO, May 18.

Dr. Wise presented a remonstrance of the board of managers of the Tract Society against the removal of the head quarters from N. Y. to Philadelphia.

On motion of Dr. Reddy, the conference resolves to suspend the call for petitions, memorials and appeals after Thursday twenty-fifth.

A memorial from the Mississippi conference was presented by Rev. Dr. Haven, of Boston, protesting against the formation of a seperate colored conference.

Rev. Mr. Lapham, of Baltimore, offered a resolution protesting against the selection of a large majority of army and navy chaplains from one of the smallest denominations in the country, that is, the Protestant Episcopal.

Rev. Dr. Walden, of Cincinnati, offered a resolution instructing the committee on the book concern to inquire what changes may be necessary in the management of the Quarterly Review to adapt it to a larger class of readers.

Rev. Dr. Pearn, of Knoxville, offered a resolution that the book agents in New-York be instructed to establish and publish weekly religious newspapers in Tennessee and Georgia.

Rev. N. Shumatt, of Missouri, offered a resolution to so amend the discipline as to provide for the introduction of lay delegates into the new annual general conference, accompanied with a plan.

Dr. Foster, of New York, offered a resolution in favor of taking all conference collections under four general calls.

Mr. Wakely, of New York, offered a resolution against the election of any General Conference officers by acclamation, which was adopted.

Dr. Curry of New York, submitted a plan for a lay delegation, which was referred without reading.

The election of General Conference officers was made the order for Tuesday, the 26th.

Mr. Wentworth, of Troy, submitted a resolution that the committee on misions be instructed to consider and report on the expediency of separating the home from the foreign department, with officers for the former in the West and for the latter in the East.

The special committee on the American and Foreign Christian Union reported that a collection be taken in its behalf, so far as may be found compatible with other church interests.

Mr. L'Hoy, chairman of the committee on address, appointed at the laymen's convention, presented an address to the conference, which was read by the Secretary.

Dr. Haven read a telegram from the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church Conference, now being held in Washington, asking if a delegation would be received by the General Conference, if furnished with credentials to it.

The Secretary was ordered to answer by telegraph, informing them that they would receive a cordial and hearty reception.

FROM MAINE.

PORTLAND, May 19.

A large and enthusiastic meeting assembled at the Hall of the Constitutional Union Club this evening, and organized a Hancock Club—the first in New England. Col. C. B. Merrill, a "fighting soldier" under Hancock, was elected President. Portland sustains Pitt, Fessenden, and favors Hancock.

—o—

The Convention

A special to the Prov. Journal May 19th midnight says Political aspects are mixed. New England is demoralized on the Vice Presidency. Maine will not give up Hamlin, and Massachusetts will not give up Wilson. New Hampshire, under the lead of Chandler and Clark, goes for Wade.

Fenton is making a strong fight and has got part of the South.

The indications are that on the first ballot Wade will lead; Colfax or Fenton next; Wilson or Hamlin afterwards, and finally Curtin.

Massachusetts could nominate Colfax by an early demonstration for him. Connecticut and Vermont would probably follow.

Rhode Island does not indicate her choice after Sprague. Colfax counts on New York where Fenton's failure is manifest.

Gen. Hawley is very likely to be President of the convention.

There is no great controversy except about the Vice-Presidency. Everything else is harmonious.

Ohio and New York both voted against saying anything about impeachment in the resolutions.

The Post's Chicago special says that Louisiana, Arkansas and Tennessee, are in favor of Fenton for Vice President. Wade's chances are improving, with a prospect of getting the votes of Pennsylvania, Illinois and Indiana. Colfax and Hamlin seem almost abandoned.

And which, the present season, with its

NEW AND MAGNIFICENT PEA TURES,

Never before presented in America, will be enabled to offer entertainments of marked originality and exciting interest, far surpassing anything hitherto witnessed on this side of the Atlantic. The public appreciation of the performances given by the New York Circus, not only in the City of New York, but also during its former Summer Excursions, has almost rendered encouragement to renewed exertions, and it confidently asserts as beyond the power of contradiction, not only that the performances of the Troupe during the present tour will be found

But that the company is in all respects

RAILROAD COMPANY

OFFER A LIMITED AMOUNT OF THEIR

First Mortgage Bonds,

AT PAR,

PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST

Payable in Gold.

THE GREAT PACIFIC RAILROAD LINE, extending 1721 miles from Omaha, on the Missouri River, to the tide-waters of the Pacific Ocean, is being built by two powerful Companies—THE UNION PACIFIC, beginning at Omaha, building West, and the Central Pacific of California, beginning at Sacramento, building East, until the two roads shall meet.

Both Companies have prosecuted the work with great vigor, the Union Pacific having already expended over and the Central over Twenty Millions, upon their respective parts of the undertaking. THE UNION PACIFIC HAVE COMPLETED 550 MILES—have iron and other materials for two hundred miles more upon the ground, and one hundred additional miles are ready for the track. They will have a much larger force employed this year than ever before, and it is expected that between will be in operation during 1863. There seems to be no reasonable doubt that the distance between Omaha and Sacramento will be traversed by rail in 1870.

THE GOVERNMENT GRANTS 12,800 acres of land, and Six Bonds to the average amount of $28,000 per mile, to aid in the construction of the line, and authorizes the issue of the First Mortgage Bonds now offered for sale, to the same amount and no more. The Government takes a second lien and gives to the First Mortgage Bondholders a prior lien for their security, to which a large paid-up capital is added. The Bonds cannot be issued except in each section of twenty miles is accepted by Government commission, so that they always represent a real property.

It is universally admitted that on the completion of the Union Pacific Railroad, its through business will make it one of the most profitable in the world—but its way or local business is already several times the interest on its bonds—so that, if not another mile were built, they would be a secure investment.

THE NET EARNINGS for eight months of last year on an average of 368 miles are officially reported at $1,040,1360, while the interest on all the Bonds it could issue on that length of road for that time, reduced to currency, was only $345,856.

The amount paid by the Government for the transportation of troops, munitions, stores and mails has been, and doubtless will continue to be, much more than the interest on the United States Second Mortgage Bonds. If it is not, the charter provides that after the road is completed, and until said bonds and interest are paid, at least five per cent. of the net earnings of the road shall be applied to such payment.

The Union Pacific Bonds are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They have thirty years to run, and bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July at the Company's Office in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. At the present rate of gold, these bonds pay an annual income on their cost of

NEARLY NINE PER CENT,

AND IT IS BELIEVED THAT THEY WILL SOON BE AT A PREMIUM.

The Company have but a very limited supply of their Bonds remaining on hand, but any subscriptions accepted to a greater amount than can be filled from Bonds now in the Company's possession, will be supplied from the New Bonds to be issued on that portion of the road completed in the Spring, in the order in which they are received.

The Company reserve the right to advance the price of their bonds to a rate above par at any time, and will not fill any orders or receive any subscriptions on which the money has not been actually paid at the Company's office before the time of such advance.

Parties subscribing will remit the par value of the bonds and the accrued interest in currency at the rate of six per cent. per annum, from the date on which the last coupon was paid. Subscriptions will be received in Newport by HENRY BULL & CO; NATIONAL EXCHANGE BANK, Newport; NEWPORT NATIONAL BANK; and in New York

At the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau Street,

AND BY

John J. Cisco & Son, Bankers, No. 59 Wall Street,

And by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1863 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices or to any of the advertised agents.

MEDICAL AND SURGICAL OFFICE,

No. 13 1-2 Howard Street, Boston.

DR. W. F. PADELFORD gives exclusive attention to diseases of the genito-urinary system, and all diseases of a private nature in both sexes.

DR. PADELFORD has gained a greater celebrity for the cure of the above diseases than any physician in America. His great success in these long standing and difficult cases, such as were formerly considered incurable, is sufficient to commend him to the public as worthy the extensive patronage he has received. Therefore, persons afflicted with diseases of the above nature, no matter how difficult or long standing the case may be, would do well to call on Dr. Padelford, at his office, and if not effectually relieved, no remuneration will be required for his services.

It is deplorable to witness some of the cases that are presented to him, where the disease has been driven into the system by quacks, the abuse of Mercury and Copaiba, &c., to break out again in the forms of spots and ulcers on the body, pain in the joints, sore throat, night sweats and emaciation.

DR. PADELFORD is admitted by the best medical talent of the country to have no equal, and it is no unusual occurrence for physicians in regular practice to recommend patients to him for treatment when afflicted with diseases in his specialty.

TO YOUNG MEN.

Seminal Weakness, or Constitutional Debility, brought on by secret habit indulged in by young men—this is one of the greatest evils that can befall man, for it begets diseases of the heart, consumption, dyspepsia, emaciation of the frame, and finally ends in complete lethargy. By causing a rush of blood to the head, it often terminates in apoplexy.

Persons suffering from NERVOUS DEBILITY, especially those contemplating marriage, should lose no time in making immediate application.

TO FEMALES,

Females will receive the most scientific attention, both medically and surgically, with private apartments during sickness, and with old and experienced nurses, if they wish.

DR. PADELFORD'S FEMALE MONTHLY DROPS, for Suppression, Irregularities, &c., &c. Warranted in all cases. Price $10—sent by express to all parts of the country.

The poor advised free of charge. Physicians or patients wishing his opinion or advice, by letter, and enclosing the usual fee, will be answered by return mail.—mh1 1y
